

CASEY LANGBROEK BIOGRAPHYCASEY LANGBROEK
FCPA, FCGA

Casey brings decades of experience in the accounting profession and delivers far more than traditional accounting services, having assisted many businesses, not-for-profits, charities and other agencies with Strategic Planning, Succession Planning and Board Governance providing exceptional results and success.

He adopted the Four Decisions® framework for the accounting firm, LLT LLP, that he is Senior Partner of. Working together with his partners and staff, Casey has instilled a culture of commitment, success, and fun LLT and Catapult Business Coaching. This has enabled them to tackle obstacles, function at a higher caliber, and reduce stress and time at the office.

Casey's principal core value is to deliver exceptional service to clientele by observing their businesses and carefully listening as they express their dreams and aspirations. Casey draws from his experience, his wins and mistakes, and his training with Gravitas Impact, to instill greater success in others by implementing the Four Decisions®.

Married over 44 years, Casey and wife Jane have three children and six grandchildren, who they encourage to live a life filled with commitment, love for others, and lots of fun. When not working, Casey can be found travelling around the world (119 countries visited to date), in the gym or at his home away from home on Vancouver Island with family.
