

JEFF REDMON BIOGRAPHYJEFF REDMON

Jeff has been helping his clients safely achieve their business summits by leveraging his knowledge, experience and networks to each client's advantage. Through practical advice, he challenges his clients to bring clarity to their vision, objectives and strategies.

Jeff leads three business owner peer groups throughout the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. At monthly meetings, members guide each other in clarifying business and professional goals and thinking through means to achieve them. An Inner Circle acts as a business owner's independent board of advisors. Members receive honest, diverse, and direct advice from other owners who also want to get to the next level.

Jeff is an active volunteer, having served on the National Board of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. He currently serves as the chair of a local hospital and his local Girls Scouts Council. He serves on a number of boards in both the profit and nonprofit world.

Executive Summary:
