

KEN THIESSEN BIOGRAPHYKEN THIESSEN

A true entrepreneur, Ken brings a wealth of diverse experiences and expertise to his coaching and consulting practice clients. He owned and operated a restaurant, spent a number of years in retail store management, was a highly successful commission territory sales person, and effectively led a number of nonprofit organizations.

As a 7 Attributes of Agile Growth® Certified Coach with Gravitas Impact, Ken helps nonprofit organizations apply the 7 Attributes of Agile Growth model of strategic thinking and execution planning to maximize the effectiveness and growth of their organization helping them take their strategic plan from idea to implementation. His doctoral degree specializing in organizational systems is a natural fit in facilitating strategic transformation.

To stay competitive with constant change in today's business environment, organizations need a culture aligned with their vision. Ken assists leadership teams to produce greater alignment within their organizations.
