 BIOGRAPHY

Marc Borrelli

Marc's passion is helping leaders build strong, sustainable, and growing companies. His unique combination of leadership and business, among other expertise, assists his clients in charting the courses for their businesses and organizations.

Clients benefit from his extensive knowledge of leadership, strategic thinking, business, international business, mergers and building value, honed by more than 30 years doing strategy and M&A.

He seeks to work with leadership teams committed to scaling sustainable, growing organizations. A 7 Attributes of Agile Growth® Certified Coach, Marc uses these tools to assist business leaders in building and executing their plans. Marc has assisted many clients in building value, buying/selling businesses, raising capital, and succession planning.

His involvement in chairing the Technology Association of Georgia, and other leadership and governance roles help Marc bring a unique perspective to each client and organization. His vast international multi-industry experience further adds context and insight.
